DETAILED ACTION

This action is responsive to the after final amendment filed 12-07-2005, which has been entered. Claims 2-15 and 17-21 are allowed.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Julie A. Haut on 12-29-2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 22 has been deleted in order to be in compliance with after final practice.

Claim 14 has been amendment to correct indefinite problem.

In claim 14, line 14, "this" has been replaced by --the-- prior to "perimeter".

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to anticipate or render obvious the combination of a tool for fitting a belt into the groove of a pulley as set forth in claims 8, 11, 14 and 20, and in particular, include a structure with two branches connected to each other by a central section, one of the branches, which define the first holding member having an opening allowing the passage of the base plate and the other branch having a bearing face for the first face of the base plate. In claim 11, the part that can move in translation has an opening traversed by the base plate and in that it has a return spring of which one end is butted against a bearing plate integral with the base plate and of which the other end bears against the part that can move in translation. In claim 14, the guide member extends substantially perpendicular to the second face and has at least one region curved toward the outside of a perimeter delimited by the base plate and the first and second holding members and located at least partly outside of the perimeter, and in claim 20, the guide member is integral with the first holding member such that guide member and the first holding member are movable along the base plate and are separated by an opening allowing the passage of the base plate.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
